Note: This directory is sponsored by Texas Health Resources. Physicians listed herein are members of the medical staff of a Texas Health hospital or joint-venture facility and are neither employees nor agents of the hospital or Texas Health Resources, except for residents in the graduate medical education program at Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Dallas. However, some physicians are employed by Texas Health Physicians Group, an entity affiliated with Texas Health Resources. This service is free. There is no charge or fee to end-users nor to the physicians, except those who may be joint-venture investors. All doctors listed herein voluntarily agree to the display of information about their respective practices. The physician information is for reference only. Please check with the physician(s) directly to verify accuracy of the information provided. Providers with a primary specialty of radiology, anesthesiology, pathology, emergency medicine, or neonatology are facility-based physicians as defined by state law.
